About the NDIS Evidence Advisory Committees

The Australian Government is setting up the NDIS Evidence Advisory Committee.

An Advisory Committee is a group of people who

- Go to meetings
- Help make decisions
- Come from different areas.

We call it the EAC for short.

The EAC will start in 2025.

It will look at

- What NDIS supports work well for people with disability

- Capacity building

Capacity building is about teaching you new skills to help you do more for yourself.

- Assistive technology

Assistive technology can be things to help you

- Speak

- Move

- Read

- Write

- See

- Hear.

About the sub committees

There will be 3 sub committees.

They will help the EAC.

They will give ideas about

- Capacity building

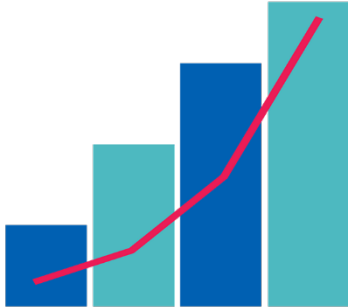

- Assistive technology

- If different kinds of supports are safe and good use of money.

People who want to be on the sub committees need to know a lot about

- Data

Data is

- Facts
- Information
- Records.

- Research

Research means

- Finding out what people think about things
- Using the information to help others.

- They also need to be good at making decisions.
