Thanks for that. I had a discussion with ^{s22} after I sent you the email and for other reasons we are probably going to decline.

Hi Alan

I am happy to go. The 23rd would probably be best, but I can go on 22 as well.

I will have a look for the email about the slides, although I did not actually have slides, I just gave a talk and showed them how to locate some legislation on the federal register. Regardless, I will try to locate the email and respond.

Dear Mr Roper (Chief Legal Counsel, Group Manager),

Recently we had s22 (Lawyer, Disability & Housing Law Section - Legal Services Branch) attend our workshop at Sydney University on NDIS Reviews and Appeals. s22 gave a very interesting and informative presentation on the Central Assessment Provider, and the National Quality & Safeguarding Framework.

The 2 reasons for my email today are:

1: We are holding another workshop in Sydney on Monday 22 January and Tuesday 23 January 2018 at Sydney University, and would like to invite s22 to present again, if she's available, and this can be arranged. It would be great to have an updated presentation on the CAP and also regarding the Quality & Safeguarding Framework.

2: One workshop participant asked whether s22 had a copy of her powerpoint presentation slides which could be provided. I emailed s22 on 12 October 2017 but didn't receive a reply, unless I'm mistaken, though I do note that this was in the lead up to a very busy part of the year. Would it be possible to see whether s22 has these slides, and whether they can be provided?

I look forward to your reply, and take the opportunity to wish you a very happy new year.

Kind Regards,

Tim O'Hare

Tim

It is not an availability issue. There are some matters under consideration that we are not in a position to comment on. So unfortunately it is not possible for us to present at this time

Hey Alan,

Thanks for the response.

Is there anyone else who could attend? I thought that as we will be discussing CAP and Quality and Safeguarding, a representative from DSS would like to attend.

Kind Regards,
Tim
